

Beyond the Book...

Book Title: A Mud Pie for Mother

Author: Scott Beck

Summary: A little pig is trying to find something to give his mother for her birthday. He sets out on the farm to find her a gift, but has some trouble. He asks the other animals for things that they have, but they all want to keep their things. So, therefore, the pig doesn't take them. In the end of the story, the animals on the farm give the pig items in return for being so nice. They give him eggs, bread, milk, etc. Then, the pig takes the items and makes his mother breakfast for her birthday.

Before Reading...

- Look at the book cover. Talk about the cute little pig. Tell your child the title and author of the book. Look through the book together and talk about each animal, what it looks like, and the sounds each animal makes.

During Reading...

Ask your child questions about what is happening.

- Can you find the _____? (Fill in the blank with an animal from the book)
- What sound does the _____ make?
- Is the chicken big or small? (Point to both the little chicken and big chicken.)
- What did the pig give his mom?

After Reading...

- Play with a toy farm/figures.
- Make a birthday card for a family member or friend.
- Give your child a basket and let him/her collect toys to put in the basket. Once the basket is full, sit down with your child and talk about each item. This is a great game that little ones like to play over and over again!

For additional activities visit www.uwchatt.org or call 423.752.0300.

These activities provided by United Way's Project Ready for School initiative and created by students at The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga.